ST. PETER LUTHERAN CHURCH | Fort Collins, CO

September 20, 2026

17th Sunday after Pentecost

WELCOME TO WORSHIP!

At St. Peter, our worship is designed to praise God and aid our growth in faith and knowledge of our awesome God. The worship service is printed in its entirety in this bulletin for your convenience. Feel free to ask Pastor Spaude or others in the congregation if you have questions. Or go to our website, stpeterwels.com

Children. We enjoy the worshiping family, so children are included in our worship services.

- Children's message: Offered during the worship service. Parents, feel free to come to the front with your child if it will help them feel more comfortable.
- Cry Room: Located near the entryway. If you do have to leave the sanctuary with your child. Both the cry room and the entry room are wired for sound.
- Sunday School: For children ages 3 through high school between services while the adults are in Bible Study. There is childcare for those children under 3.
- Busy bags: For your children are available in the entry room for use during worship.

Visitors, please do not feel obligated. The offering plate will be passed; please do not feel obligated to take part in the offering, although you are welcome to do so. Our members do so as an expression to the Lord of our thanks & praise for his amazing love!

We do hope you will sign our guest book page on the credenza in the entry room so that we know you were here in case we did not get to say hello.

Join us. After the morning service, we join for fellowship, coffee, & snacks in the fellowship hall (adjacent to the sanctuary doors). Then, about 9:30 we start the Adult Bible Study.

Restrooms. Located in the Fellowship Hall. If you need directions, please ask an usher.

TODAY'S WORSHIP FOCUS

UNEXPECTED TRUTH: Grace is Amazing

Give a single bag of M&Ms to siblings in middle school and tell them to share. You will witness counting done with accounting-like precision. Each child will get an equal amount of candy because that is fair. That's what's expected! Human beings have an incredibly strong sense of fairness.

That is why it can be so amazing when we see how God unexpectedly dispenses blessing and grace. The prophet Jonah was perplexed when he saw God's mercy on a nation that was an enemy to Jonah's people. Like Jonah, we need to stop expecting God to be fair. He does not give us what we deserve. Instead, in his grace, he shows us mercy. That's amazing!

Invocation

In the name of the Father and of the (+) Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Confession

If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us.

If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness.

Let us confess our sins to the Lord.

Holy God, gracious Father,

I am sinful by nature and have sinned against you in my thoughts, words, and actions.

I have not loved you with my whole heart; I have not loved others as I should.

I deserve your punishment both now and forever.

But Jesus, my Savior, paid for my sins with his innocent suffering and death.

Trusting in him, I pray: God, have mercy on me, a sinner.

Absolution

Our gracious Father in heaven has been merciful to us. He sent his only Son, Jesus Christ, who gave his life as the atoning sacrifice for the sins of the whole world. Therefore, as a called servant of Christ and by his authority, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the (+) Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Lord, Have Mercy

CW 190

In peace let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mer - cy.

For the peace from above and for our sal - vation, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mer - cy.

For the peace of the whole world, for the well-being of the Church of God, and for the un - it - y of all, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mer - cy.

For this holy house and for all who offer here their wor - ship and praise, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mer - cy.

Help, save, comfort, and de - fend us, gra - cious Lord.

A - men. A - men.

The Word

Salutation

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Prayer of the Day

We pray. Lord God, you call us to work in your kingdom and promise to reward us according to your grace. Help us to rid our minds of worldly expectations and rejoice that you freely pour out the blessings of salvation to all people; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

1st Reading

Romans 9:6-8; 16, EHV

⁶This does not mean that God's word has failed, because not all who are descended from Israel are really Israel, ⁷and not all who are descended from Abraham are really his children. On the contrary, "Your line of descent will be traced through Isaac." ⁸This means that it is not the children of the flesh who are God's children, but it is the children of the promise who are counted as his descendants. ¹⁶So then, it does not depend on human desire or effort, but on God's mercy.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

2nd Reading (Gospel)

Matthew 20:1-16, EHV

¹Indeed the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard. ²After agreeing to pay the workers a denarius for the day, he sent them into his vineyard. ³He also went out about the third hour and saw others standing unemployed in the marketplace. ⁴To these he said, 'You also go into the vineyard, and I will give you whatever is right.' So they went. ⁵Again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour and did the same thing. ⁶When he went out about the eleventh hour, he found others standing unemployed. He said to them, 'Why have you stood here all day unemployed?' ⁷"They said to him, 'Because no one hired us.' "He told them, 'You also go into the vineyard.' ⁸When it was evening, the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, 'Call the workers and pay them their wages, starting with the last group and ending with the first.' ⁹"When those who were hired around the eleventh hour came, they each received a denarius. ¹⁰When those who were hired first came, they thought they would receive more. But they each received a denarius too. ¹¹After they received it, they began to grumble against the landowner: ¹²"Those who were last worked one hour, and you made them equal to us who have endured the burden of the day and the scorching heat!" ¹³"But he answered one of them, 'Friend, I am doing you no wrong. Did you not make an agreement with me for a denarius?' ¹⁴Take what is yours and go. I want to give to the last one hired the same as I also gave to you. ¹⁵Can't I do what I want with my own money? Or are you envious because I am generous?' ¹⁶In the same way, the last will be first, and the first, last."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to you, O Christ!

Sermon Text

Jonah 3:10—4:11, EHV

¹⁰When God saw their actions, that they had turned from their evil way, God relented from the disaster which he said he would bring on them, and he did not carry it out. ¹But to Jonah all this seemed very bad, and he became very angry. ²He prayed to the LORD, "LORD, wasn't this exactly what I said when I was still in my own country? That is why I previously fled to Tarshish, because I knew that you are a gracious and merciful God, slow to anger and abounding in mercy, and you relent from sending disaster. ³So now, LORD, please take my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live." ⁴But the LORD replied, "Is it right for you to be angry?" ⁵Jonah went out of the city and sat down east of the city. He made a shelter for himself there and sat in the shade under it, waiting to see what would happen in the city. ⁶Then the LORD God provided a plant and made it grow up over Jonah to provide shade over his head, to relieve him from his discomfort. So Jonah was very happy about the plant. ⁷But at dawn the next day God provided a worm, and it attacked the plant so that it withered. ⁸When the sun rose, God provided a scorching east wind. The sun beat down on Jonah's head so that he grew faint. He wanted to die, so he said, "It is better for me to die than to live." ⁹But God said to Jonah, "Is it right for you to be angry about the plant?" Jonah said, "I do have a right to be angry—angry enough to die!" ¹⁰So the LORD said, "You have been concerned about this plant. You did not work for it or make it grow. It grew up in one night and perished after one night. ¹¹So should I not be concerned for Nineveh, the great city, in which there are more than one hundred twenty thousand people who do not know the difference between their right hand and their left—and also many animals?"

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Rejoice at God's Amazing Grace!

1. For others.

2. For yourself.

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary, and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate. He suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who in unity with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer of the Church

We pray that we would learn to become like our divine Master, who wants all to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth, let us pray to the Lord:

Lord, have mercy.

We pray for this nation, that the Lord would bless all authorities, that they would serve on behalf of the defenseless, let us pray to the Lord:

Lord, have mercy.

We pray for those who are in any need, that God would keep them in the certainty that to live is Christ and to die is gain, let us pray to the Lord:

Lord, have mercy.

We pray for those still being instructed, that they may be nourished in hope and come soon to the Lord's table, let us pray to the Lord:

Lord, have mercy.

For all who commune this day, that they may receive our Savior's body and blood in faith for the forgiveness of their sins. Let us pray to the Lord

Lord have mercy. Amen.

The Sacrament

To ensure that all who come to the Lord's Supper receive it to their benefit, we ask that those come up:

1) Have faith in Jesus' death and resurrection for the forgiveness of sins. 2) Believe that Jesus real body and blood are present in Holy communion. 3) Share a oneness of all the beliefs of the Bible with each other by being a member of the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod (WELS) or the Evangelical Lutheran Synod (ELS). Thank you for observing this practice.

Preface

CW 199

The Lord be with you.

And al - so with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Blessed are you, Lord God, eternal King and gracious Father. In love you made us the crown of your creation. In mercy you planned our salvation. In grace you sent your Son to redeem us from sin.

We remember and give you thanks that your eternal Son, Jesus Christ, became flesh and made his dwelling among us, that he willingly placed himself under law to redeem those under law, that he humbled himself by becoming obedient to death on a cross, that he has destroyed death and has brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

Bless us as we receive your Son's body and blood in this Sacrament. Forgive our sins, increase our faith, strengthen our fellowship, and deepen our longing for the day when Christ will welcome us to his eternal feast. Praise and thanks and honor and glory be to you, O God our Father, and to your Son and to the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

Words of Institution

Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night he was betrayed, took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my (+) body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Then he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you; this is my (+) blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for you for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me."

Pax Domini

The peace of the Lord be with you always.

Amen.

Thanksgiving

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good;
his mercy endures forever.

Proclamation

Whenever we eat this bread and drink this cup, we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Post-Communion Prayer

O God the Father, source of all goodness, in your loving-kindness you sent your Son to share our humanity. We thank you that through him you have given us pardon and peace in this Sacrament. We also pray that you will not forsake us but will rule our hearts and minds by your Holy Spirit so that we willingly serve you day after day; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

Blessing

The Lord bless you and keep you.

The Lord make his face shine on you and be gracious to you.

The Lord look on you with favor and (+) give you peace.

YOUTH MOVIE & LUNCH

Today, September 20, 12:30 – 3:30 pm

St. Peter youth, come for an afternoon showing of the movie, Luther. We'll discuss the movie and have lunch and popcorn. Bring a favorite movie snack to share if desired, but this is optional! Kaylene Fisbeck is hosting this event. Thank you Kaylene!

YOUNG, YOUNG-ISH, OR NEITHER, EVERYONE IS WELCOME!

Sun, 9/27, 11:am – 2:pm

Join us for our young-ish adult meetup at the Fossil Creek Park playground! Hang out, enjoy some fellowship, and have lunch with us. Tacos will be provided! Kids are absolutely welcome, the playground should give them plenty to do while the grown-ups visit. Love to see you there!

WELS CHRISTIAN GIVING PRESENTATION

September 27, between services

More and more of the members of our sister churches in the WELS are arranging gifts for ministry in their wills. On September 27, we plan to have our Christian Giving Counselor, Pastor Nathan Cordes, with us. He will help us walk through the idea of planning our own gift for spreading the good news about Jesus to others after the Lord takes us to His heavenly home.

FALL FESTIVAL

Invite your friends and family to join you for some fall fun at St. Peter! We'll have horseback rides, hayrides, carnival games, a bounce house, crafts, other activities, and a chili cookoff potluck. Bring your favorite chili. Look for a food signup for other things to bring!

Our church is hosting a presentation on writing a Christian will led by one of our district's WELS Christian giving counselors. Come and learn how to make plans that support you, your loved ones, and Christ's work. Even if you already have a will, it's a good idea to check it over if it's been five years or more since you last reviewed it or if there has been a significant change in your personal or financial situation. Whether writing or updating your will, you will have the opportunity to schedule a private consultation with the giving counselor for free assistance.

WELS Christian giving counselors are called workers who apply Scriptural principles to the gift planning process. Since their services are funded by our church body, there is no cost to you or the congregation. And your local WELS Christian giving counselor is available to provide you with further help as you consider revising your plans.

"It was great because he came right to the house, sat down at the table, and answered every question."
